Every year, the California Immigrant Welfare Collaborative (CIWC) sponsors low-cost training sessions in various locations in California for service providers, immigrant advocates, and other individuals serving immigrant communities. The purpose of the trainings is to share information about immigrant access to and eligibility for public health and social service programs as well as the impact of state and federal laws and policies on immigrant communities. Topics that are covered through CIWC's Regional Trainings include:

- Immigrant Eligibility for Benefits 101
- Immigrant Domestic Violence Survivors & Trafficking Victims
- Current Issues in Health Care
- Addressing Access Barriers
- Language Rights
- Immigrant Know-Your-Rights
- Countering Anti-Immigrant Messages through the Media

CIWC's trainings are generally held in the Fall, and pre-registration is encouraged. The Asian Pacific American Legal Center (APALC), a CIWC's partner and CIWC's fiscal agent has been approved as a continuing legal education provider of Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit by the State Bar of California. CIWC's trainings qualify for MCLE credit by the State Bar of California in the amount of 6 hours.
